

Kingfisher Primary School
Geography Curriculum Map

Term	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
Autumn 1	Human & physical maps. Maps – looking at human and physical features of Yeovil. Compass, keys and maps	Our World - Human and physical geographical features of their locality. Identify the features of villages, towns and cities.	Welcome to the UK- UK geographical and locational awareness, map work and land use.	Mountains, earthquakes & volcanoes. Children learn about the different types of mountains and their features.	Rivers - physical and human features, wildlife and management of rivers.	European country study: France
Spring 1	Seasons, weather patterns, the equator. Use world maps, atlases and globes to identify the UK and its countries. Also, the 7 continents and 5 oceans.	An Island Home: To use maps to locate other places and landmarks and investigate the physical and human features of Yeovil and Coll and identify how land and buildings are used.	The World Around Us- The equator, hemisphere's, tropics and the north and south poles. Mapping skills, human and physical features of the countries in Europe.	Mexico – Children learn about the Human and Physical Geography of Mexico. They learn about its festivals and continue mapping skills.	Mapping skills- different types of maps, how to read different types of maps, map symbols and their meanings and comparing maps.	Land use and natural resources.
Summer 1	The Seaside (Human/Physical Features)	Australia: To understand geographical similarities and differences through studying the human and physical geography of England and Australia.	Comparing Brazil & England Children learn about the human and physical features of Brazil. They explore Carnival in Brazil and continue to develop their mapping skills.	Local: Where do I live? What can I do? Children learn about their local environment in Yeovil, Somerset and the wider Southwest. This will include mapping and the Human Geography of the area.	Country comparison project of Peru and England. Children to study Peru and aspects such as the Andes mountains. Children to compare the human and physical features of each place.	Local study: Ham Hill