Dear Parents & Carers,

Military Kids Day – Friday 24th April 2026

April is the designated Month of the Military Child. It is a time to celebrate and raise awareness of the unique experiences children from an Armed Forces background may encounter.

Here at Kingfisher, Mrs Streetin runs our Dandelion Club, a club which is specifically for children whose parents serve in the armed forces. The purpose of this club is to ensure that our service children understand that they are not alone, and that they can voice any worries or concerns they might have.

This year we are again celebrating this very important day on Friday 24th April 2026 – we are encouraging all pupils and staff to wear purple to school (if they can) to show support for our military children and their families. On the day, members of our Dandelion Club will be leading an assembly to share what it is like to be a military child.

We hope to turn Kingfisher purple for the day!

If you have any questions, please contact the school office.

With best wishes,

Mr Daniel Glentworth
Headteacher
